

GI Drug Probers Call U.S. Aides

Associated Press

Two Senate subcommittees announced yesterday they have invited top administration officials to testify at a closed session on reports that key Laotian, Thai and Vietnamese officials are involved in heroin traffic affecting American troops in Southeast Asia.

The invitation was issued by Sen. Edmund S. Muskie (D-Maine chairman of the subcommittee on intergovernmental relations, and Sen. Abraham Ribicoff (D-Conn.), chairman of the subcommittee on executive reorganization and government research, to Attorney General John Mitchell, Secretary of State William P. Rogers, Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird and Richard Helms, director of the Central Intelligence Agency.
